

This site has been published in the United States for residents of the United States. The foregoing has been prepared solely for informational purposes, and it is not an offer to buy or sell or a solicitation of an offer to buy or sell any security or instrument or to participate in any particular trading strategy.

Much of the information offered on this site is offered through third-party independent vendors and non-affiliated market sites. Purshe Kaplan Sterling Investments offers no opinion as to the accuracy or timeliness of any information provided within this site, nor offers any guarantees as to the accuracy or timeliness of any information contained within this site. Consumers and/or members of the public should not exclusively rely upon this information when considering investments decisions.

Purshe Kaplan Sterling, and any of its employees acting as an agent, may transact business in a particular state only if first registered, excluded or exempted from registration requirements either individually or as a firm. In addition, follow-up conversations or meetings with individuals in a particular state by either Purshe Kaplan Sterling, or its employees acting as agent to effect transactions in securities or discuss securities, investment planning or other personal investment advice will not be made without first becoming registered, excluded or exempted from registration requirements either individually or as a firm. Member FINRA/SIPC. Securities cleared through National Financial Services LLC.

With passage of the USA PATRIOT Act and SEC approval of the Treasury Department's Customer Identification Rules, Purshe Kaplan Sterling Investments (PKS) must notify all public and institutional clients of its obligation to verify their identity. Verification of identity will take place through various means, such as comparing information provided by the client against databases like Equifax or Lexis/Nexis, requiring photocopies of a driver's license, passport, or alien registration card, or obtaining other documents of attestation as to that client's identity.

The Management of PKS would like to thank all clients for their cooperation in assisting the firm in doing its part to maintain the integrity of the U.S. securities markets.